

Concert Singers of Cary Board of Directors Openings for 2022-24

March 20, 2022

The Organization

The Concert Singers of Cary is dedicated to enriching the community it serves by performing outstanding choral music from a broad range of traditions and styles. The Concert Singers of Cary is comprised of various auditioned groups, ranging from the more than 100-member Symphonic Choir to the 16-voice Choral Artists, and is led by Artistic Director Dr. Nathan Leaf. Since its founding in 1991, the organization has been recognized for its unique and varied repertoire and creative collaborations with other performing arts organizations. These partnerships have included The North Carolina Symphony; The Chamber Orchestra of the Triangle; Hank, Pattie & the Current; and, the North Carolina Baroque Orchestra.

The Board of Directors

As the governing body of the Concert Singers of Cary, a 501(c)(3) organization with an annual budget around $100,000, the board of directors is responsible for all matters of finance, fundraising, marketing, staffing, community relations and administrative policy. Specific responsibilities and expectations are available upon request—some key items are noted below.

- Hire and evaluate the work of the Executive Director and Artistic Director;
- Establish and monitor committees;
- Play an active role in ensuring the financial health of the Concert Singers of Cary and that it is adequately funded to fulfill its mission.

Board members are expected to attend 10-12 board meetings per year, serve on one or more committees of the board and to actively participate in committee work.

Board members add value to the organization through many different ways; personal financial contributions are expected at a level commensurate with each board member's means.

Board terms last for two years and board members may serve for up to three consecutive terms. Terms typically begin July 1.

Desired Skills and Expertise

We are currently recruiting for diverse leaders with experience in the following areas:

- Fundraising and development (esp. corporate sponsorship and large-donor fundraising)
- Non-profit strategic planning and board governance
- Marketing and communication (including use of social media, content and strategy development)
- Website development and maintenance

For more information, please email megan.brachtl@gmail.com.